The calendar description of undergraduate courses offered in our Department is available at <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2016/index.htm>. More information on the Department of Anthropology is available at <http://anthropology.uwo.ca/>

Candidates must have a PhD, or be close to completion, and a demonstrated record of performance in teaching.

In accordance with the Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

NEW: For all Limited Duties postings (excluding course authoring appointments), please select the link: Working at Western, Employment Opportunities. Working at Western opportunities have expanded to include online applications for Limited Duties appointments, moving a highly paper-based, slower process to an efficient, secure online experience.

When at the site, please select the appropriate link under the Logging in section. From the Working at Western Career's Home page, search by Posting Type: Faculty Postings (from the dropdown) and use the Advanced Search features to find the Department/School/Faculty you wish to explore for opportunities.

The closing date for applications is May 25, 2016.

All positions are subject to budgetary approval. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and Permanent Residents will be given priority. Western University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from all qualified individuals, including women, members of visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity.

Note: Recent Western graduates who are foreign nationals may be eligible to work on campus. Please refer to the Citizenship and Immigration Canada website under Post-Graduation Employment at <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/study/index.asp>.
