

Madagascar Field Course (in Environmental Anthropology) May-June, 2010

In the Spring of 2010, the Department of Anthropology at the University of Western Ontario will be offering a 4 week intensive field course in northern Madagascar. Under the supervision of faculty members from UWO and the University of Antsiranana (in northern Madagascar), students enrolled in this course will have the opportunity to study and work alongside UWO and Malagasy students on a range of research projects related to conservation and development efforts in the region.
