Course information:

Mode of delivery: Online.

Credit value: 0.5

Antirequisites: Linguistics 2288A/B.

Prerequisites: None.

Course Description:

Linguistics is the scientific study of human language: how it works, patterns, structures, processes of change. Linguists study language as a system of thought and communication by examining particular languages and comparing them. In this course, students will learn the basic concepts in the main areas of linguistics: phonetics (sound systems), phonology (sound patterns), morphology (word formation), syntax (sentence structure) and semantics (word and sentence meaning). In addition, we will explore the changes in language. This course trains students to recognize patterns in language and to solve analytical problems using both systematic and creative thinking. Students will be introduced to many different languages as we examine similarities and differences among them.

Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Recognize linguistic patterns within and across languages.
- Effectively analyze the structure of languages, as manifested in their phonological, morphological, syntactic, and/or semantic systems.
- Express, assess, and defend analyses of linguistic data with clarity and rigor in standard written academic language.
- Use linguistic terminology to explain language phenomena.
- Develop a simulation of a language system modeled on other languages

Course Materials:

- Contemporary Linguistic Analysis: an introduction, 9th edition. Edited by William O'Grady and John Archibald (2019) Pearson/Longman: Toronto.

Optional:

Evaluation:

Weekly Exercises – 15% (1.5% each, the lowest will be dropped)

3 Homework Assignments – 15%, 17%, 18%

Final Assignment – 35%

Weekly Exercises

There will be 11 Weekly Exercises in OWL, and you are allowed to miss one of them. They will be open on Monday 9am EST and have to be completed by Thursday 11.55pm EST. The answers will be available on Friday 9am EST. No make-up will be available for the Weekly Exercises, meaning that a missed exercise will automatically receive a 0 and will count as your lowest (and so dropped) grade. It is highly recommended that you complete them on Wednesday/Thursday and check the correct answers on Friday. They will be graded for completeness, not correctness. You are encouraged to attend the office hours to ask clarification questions about these exercises.

Homework Assignments

There are three homework assignments due throughout the term. Homework must be submitted electronically on OWL by 11.55pm EST of the Sunday of the week indicated on the schedule unless otherwise specified. Follow the instructions very closely and submit the files in the required format. Late homework will be penalized 5% per business day and will only be accepted until Thursday (20% penalty). You may submit handwritten homework assignments if you find the linguistic symbols and diagrams too difficult or tedious to reproduce by computer. Make sure your writing is neat; illegible assignments will not be marked. Electronic attachments must be all in one document in pdf and not attached as separate images. Failure to follow these submission requirements will result in our refusal to accept your assignment.

Final Assignment

The final assignment is a cumulative assignment, where you will be asked to apply all the analytical skills you have learned throughout the course, including those gained in your assignments and weekly exercises. The details about the final assignment will be known later throughout the term. This assignment will take a well-prepared student 4 hours to complete. It will take place during the final exam time.
