

DR. LAURENCE RALPH

HE/HIM

PROFESSOR OF ANTHROPOLOGY;
DIRECTOR OF THE CENTER ON TRANSNATIONAL POLICING

Ralph's research is in the areas of urban and medical anthropology, focusing on the themes of gangs, disability, masculinity, race, and popular culture. His books 'Renegade Dreams: Living Through Injury in Gangland Chicago' and 'The Torture Letters' examine aspects of the racialized existence of Black residents of Chicago.