

DR. LILA ABU-LUGHOD

SHE / HER

PALESTINIAN-AMERICAN
PROFESSOR OF ANTHROPOLOGY AND GENDER STUDIES

Abu-Lughod is a leading voice in the debates about culture, gender, Islam, and global feminist studies.

After writing seven books, she is most well-known for her 2013 book, Do Muslim Women Need Saving?, where she argues religion is not the main contributor to global inequality, but it is instead poverty, governmental abuse, and global tensions.