

Western University – Anthro 3320

Historical Archaeology & Heritage Field School

Nevis May 2026

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, Contact Dr. Neal Ferris at nferris@uwo.ca;
WhatsApp: +15199336898

1.0 credit course in:

- Archaeological field survey and excavation; landscape mapping; lab work on collections
 - Digital applications (drone mapping, GPR, 3D scanning)
 - Site conservation and management
 - Caribbean archaeology and history, including documenting Caribbean Indigenous archaeological sites; the legacies of plantation life and European colonialism; the Bath House-Hotel (ca. 1800, the earliest formal hotel in the eastern Caribbean); and the healing volcanic waterway of the Bath Spring
 - Nevis Culture and Craft workshops
 - Working with Community partners – supporting oral history and local heritage capacity building
 - Supporting the Nevis Historical Conservation Society, documenting and protecting sites, and promoting Nevis' heritage to Nevisians
 - Community Beach clean-up
- Enrollment by Application; info session will be scheduled in second half of November